

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

An Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in a college is a committee established to continuously monitor and improve the quality of academic and administrative processes. NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) recommends that all accredited institutions have an IQAC as a post-accreditation quality sustenance measure. The IQAC's primary goal is to foster a culture of quality within the institution and to develop systems for continuous improvement.

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of college was established in the year 2007. The Cell has been functioning as an integral part of our Academic and Administrative activities. The IQAC has geared up and has extended its support for all the Academic and Administrative affairs of our college.

Vision of the IQAC

The vision of an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is to establish and maintain a strong quality culture within an institution, focusing on self and external evaluation, promoting quality-related initiatives, and ensuring transparent and reliable efforts to enhance overall quality.

Objectives

The primary aim of the IQAC is:

To develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic action to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution.

To promote measures for institutional functioning towards quality enhancement through internalization of quality culture and institutionalization of best practices.

The Mission of IQAC

1. Ensuring timely, efficient and progressive performance of academic, administrative and financial tasks;

2. The relevance and quality of academic and research programmes; Equitable access to and affordability of academic programmes for various sections of society.
3. Optimization and integration of modern methods of teaching and learning;
4. The credibility of evaluation procedures;
5. Ensuring the adequacy, maintenance and proper allocation of support structure and services;
6. Sharing of research findings and networking with other institutions in India and abroad.
